Biography

Henry Sloane Coffin (HSC), President of Union Theological Seminary (UTS) from 1926 to 1945, was born in New York City January 5, 1877 where his early years were spent. He attended Yale University, awarded Phi Beta Kappa, Class of 1897. After graduation from Yale, HSC spent two years in theological studies at New College in Edinburgh, graduating in 1899. He then graduated from UTS with his Bachelors of Divinity in 1900. While at UTS, he concurrently completed a M.A. from Yale. He was ordained in the Presbyterian Church USA in 1900, began his ministry at the Bedford Park Church in the Bronx, NY and remained there from 1900-1905. Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church called him to their pastorate in 1905 until 1926. When he arrived this congregation was small and struggling. By the time he left in 1926 the congregation numbered 2,000 and was one of the largest in New York City. His active leadership in ecumenical affairs as well as the Presbyterian Church was often given public recognition and appreciation and he appeared on the cover of Time Magazine in 1926.

Coffin started his teaching career at UTS in 1904 as part-time Associate Professor of Homiletics and Practical Theology in addition to his parish commitments. Eventually, he accepted the Presidency of UTS in 1926 and served until his retirement in 1945. Referred to as "Uncle Henry," a popular nickname attached to him by students, he was an active leader in all aspects of seminary life, and in the larger Christian leadership. During his time as president, Coffin was responsible for hiring both Reinhold Niebuhr and Paul Tillich. He deftly navigated UTS through the financial woes of the depression era. Coffin was also a strong advocate of US involvement in World War II. With Herbert Hoover he worked to send provisions to England prior to the US declaration of war in 1941. His commitment to education is evidenced by his tenure as the President of the Board of Trustees of Roberts College in Constantinople, Turkey. He was the Fellow of the Corporation for Yale University, and was elected Moderator by the 155th Presbyterian General Assembly in May, 1943, the highest honor bestowed by his denomination.

President Henry Sloan Coffin was often joined by students at lunch. Photograph from a scrapbook in the Union Theological Seminary Records, The Burke Library Archives at Union Theological Seminary in the City of New York.

Coffin was awarded honorary degrees from many institutions: Doctor of Divinity from New York University (1906), Yale (1915), Harvard (1922), Princeton (1925), Glasgow (1926), Union College (1928), Episcopal Theological Seminary (1935); Doctor of Laws from Amherst (1927) and St. Andrews (1934); Doctor of Sacred Theology from Jewish Theological Seminary (1937); Doctor of Literature from College of Ozarks (1931) and Western Reserve (1937); and Doctor of Theology from University of Marburg (1930) and from the Faculté Libre de Théologie Protestante in Paris (1938).

In 1906 he married Dorothy Prentice Eells. They were survived by two children: Ruth Prentice Coffin, born March 12, 1921 and David D. Coffin, born November 26, 1922. Henry Sloane Coffin died November 25, 1954. Dorothy Coffin survived her husband until 1983.
